

UNIVERSITY OF HOHENHEIM

CERTIFICATE OF PARTICIPATION

CareerCenter Hohenheim

Working in Germany: A Practical Guide to Professional Success

LOKESH GOUD DABBI

on 20.02.2026 participated in the event.

Content of the seminar:

- Living in Germany: Insights into German culture, small talk, networking, and building professional relationships; understanding legal aspects of work-life balance, including vacation and working hours.
- German Workplace Culture: Structure and hierarchies in German companies; professional etiquette regarding emails, meetings, and workplace behavior.
- Workplace Communication: Differences between direct and indirect communication; strategies for giving and receiving feedback and managing workplace conflicts.
- Working in Diverse Teams: Expectations from German employers and colleagues; navigating cultural differences and promoting effective teamwork in multicultural environments.

This seminar is offered as part of the BRICKS project and can be credited towards the BRICKS certificate.

The event was carried out by Laleh Gomari-Luksch.

The time required for the seminar is equivalent to 0.50 credit(s).

Hohenheim, 20.02.2026

The document was created electronically and is also valid in this form without a signature.

